*The Amerindian Act of 2006 recognizes subsistence rights or privileges owned by Amerindian Villages and Amerindian Communities within their lands.

*According to the Wildlife Conservation, Management and Sustainable Use Regulations, in order to ensure the continuance of Amerindian traditional rights within the boundaries of Village Lands, the Minister may exempt any Amerindian or group of Amerindians from the provisions of the Regulations relating to the collecting of wildlife. When such exemption is granted, Amerindians shall not use wildlife for any purpose other than subsistence or medicinal purposes, or any other purposes specified by the Minister.

FAILURE TO RESPECT THESE CLOSED SEASONS CAN RESULT IN FINES OF UPTO $2,000,000 AND/OR UPTO 3 YEARS IN PRISON.
